

Phytochemical Screening of Some Indian Plants

Ashok Kumar Singh*

Received on 19th Sept., 1980

In the present study some Indian plants of the flora of Gorakhpur region have been screened phytochemically for the evaluation of their economically important constituents viz. alkaloids, saponin, essential oils and mucilage. Results are given in the tables.

*S4/50D4 Orderly Bazar, Varanasi-221002.