United Nations Nations Unies

HEADQUARTERS | SIEGE | NEW YORK, NY 10017

REFERENCE: SCA/16/26 (01)

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014) on Yemen, subject to the extension of its mandate by the Security Council in November 2026. The Panel of Experts on Yemen, which is comprised of five experts, operates under the direction of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014).

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on Yemen that will become vacant in December 2026. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned relevant areas of expertise and competence:

- Arms,
- Armed groups,
- Finance,
- International humanitarian law,
- Regional issues.

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For the above-mentioned positions, fluency in English is required; knowledge of Arabic is an advantage.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the Panel of Experts established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4/Rev.2). For further information on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014) on Yemen, please visit: <https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/sanctions/2140/panel-of-experts/work-and-mandate>

Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations no later than 12 October 2026, through the following e-mail address: sc-2140-committee@un.org.

In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online by 12 October 2026 at the below URLs. Only applications received through the online platform will be considered.

<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/284659?language=en> (arms);
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/284656?language=en> (armed groups);
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/284645?language=en> (finance);
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/284647?language=en> (international humanitarian law);
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/284660?language=en> (regional).

In addition to the specific positions above, Member States should also encourage qualified individuals to apply online to the Security Council Affairs Division Pool of Experts at:
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/191928?language=en>.

The Pool of Experts was developed to facilitate the recruitment of qualified individuals, on short notice, to serve on sanctions monitoring groups, teams and panels established by the Security Council. Applying to the Pool of Experts will not result in direct employment. Similarly, acceptance into the Pool of Experts does not constitute any guarantee or offer of employment. Enquires about joining the Pool of Experts may be directed to SCAD-poolofexperts@un.org.
